

Internship Title: Marketing and Communications Intern (unpaid)

Department: ReStore

Training and Resources: Upon starting the internship, the intern will be familiarized with the policies, procedures and goals of the Habitat ReStore. They will then be shown the current marketing and communication practices and familiarized with their particular project. The ideal candidate should have a background in marketing and communications whether it is work experience or classroom education they are looking to translate into real world experience.

Benefits: The intern will learn about Habitat for Humanity's mission of building simple, decent, affordable housing. They will: a) learn the ReStore's role in attaining the affiliate's goal, b) engage in a meaningful volunteer experience, and c) see how non-profit marketing can be successful even on a limited budget.

Position Requirements: Intern must: a) have excellent written and verbal communication skills, b) have an energetic and professional attitude, c) be able to self motivate, d) commit to at least eight hours on site each week, e) be creative, f) pay close attention to detail, g) have an interest in Habitat's mission and in non-profit work, and h) be reliable and have the ability to meet deadlines.

Job Description: The Marketing and communications Intern will be involved in a range of activities surrounding their designated projects, depending on experience and interest. Intern will support the ReStore Manager and the Development Director in several areas that include but are not limited to: creating a marketing plan, online marketing and research, posting ads in community papers and other press, represent Habitat's ReStore in the community, going to events and meetings and other duties as needed.

To apply or for more information: Please contact Karly Grilloit, the Volunteer Coordinator, at volunteer@habitatnwhc.org or call the office at 281-820-2307 ex. 307.

Deadline: open

Habitat for Humanity Northwest Harris County is a nonprofit, ecumenical Christian organization. Our mission is founded on the conviction that every family should have the opportunity to own a basic, decent home in which to live in dignity and safety. We partner with the community and families to create affordable housing and help develop responsible homeowners and successful neighborhoods.
